NOTICE TO JUVENILE AND PARENTS

Pursuant to Art. 45.057(h) and (i) of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, you are hereby given notice of the following obligation:

A child and parent required to appear before the Court have an obligation to provide the Court, in writing, with the current address and residence of the child. On or before the seventh (7th) day after the date the child or parent changes residence, the child or parent shall notify the Court of the child's current address and residence. This notice may be in the form of a letter complete with the old and new addresses of the parent and/or child.

A violation of this obligation may result in arrest and is a Class C misdemeanor offense for both the juvenile and the parent/legal guardian.

This obligation does not end when the child reaches 17 years of age. The obligation to provide notice of residence and address information terminates only upon discharge and satisfaction of the judgment or final disposition on this citation not requiring a finding of guilt.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I received this notice of my obligation to provide the Municipal Court with my current address and residence information, and I agree to provide the Court with written notice of any change in my address or residence within seven (7) days of that change. I understand that if I fail to comply with this obligation, I may be arrested and it is a separate Class C misdemeanor offense.

Juvenile

Date

I, the parent/legal guardian of the above-named juvenile, acknowledge that I received notice of my obligation to provide the Municipal Court with current address and residence information for this child. I understand that if I fail to comply with this obligation, a warrant may issue for my arrest and that it is a Class C misdemeanor offense.
