Burleson firefighters and Burleson police officers are taking their talents to the gridiron Saturday, Dec. 13, in the annual Blue Vs. Red charity flag football game.

This is the eighth year that the two public safety departments will square off. The tally is five wins for the fire department and two for the police department. The firefighters won in 2007 so they have the traveling trophy in their possession.

The flag football game benefits Heart for the Kids and is hosted by the Burleson Professional Firefighters Association Local #4025 and Burleson Police Officers Association. The game will start at 1 p.m. on Dec. 13, at the stadium at Kerr Middle School on Johnson Avenue. The cost of admission is one unwrapped toy for a needy child. Last year, those who attended and played in the game donated 400 toys, seven bicycles and $45 in cash.
