You don't have to go to San Antonio to learn about the Alamo. The Burleson Public Library will be hosting an exhibit from Humanities Texas entitled "Alamo Images: Changing Perceptions of a Texas Experience," Jan. 15-Feb. 15.

According to the Humanities web site, the exhibit surveys the Alamo of the Texas imagination through illustrations drawn from historical documents, paintings, sketches, cartoons, comic books, TV and movie interpretations. Alamo Images focuses, not merely on Texas history, but on the mythic power of events that helped define a community, state, and nation and on the ways in which people learn history.

For more information about the upcoming exhibit, call the Burleson Public Library at 817-295-6131. For more information about this release, call the public information office at 817-447-5400, ext. 286.
