The City of Burleson will celebrate the grand opening of the Senior Activity Center with a day full of activities on Friday, Nov. 14.

The grand opening and ribbon cutting at the center at 216 S.W. Johnson Ave. is slated for 11:30 a.m. to noon. That will be followed by a hot dog lunch with all the fixings.

The day starts with bingo for the senior citizens from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., then a health fair from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. The fun culminates with the monthly senior dance from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

City of Burleson staff, council members, and senior citizens shoveled dirt Aug. 3, 2007, to celebrate the expansion of the Burleson Senior Activity Center.

The expansion includes 5,400 square feet of new construction as well as additional parking. The expansion doubles the size of the center as well as the parking. More restroom facilities were added. An additional large room with divider walls is also a new feature.

Seniors must be 55 years of age or older.

For more information about the expansion and grand opening, contact David McDowell at 817-295-8168.
