With a large turnout expected for the 16th annual Founders Day in Burleson's Old Town on Saturday, Oct. 11, come early and stay late to keep your parking space.

Ellison Street, which runs in front of Burleson City Hall, will be closed from Bransom Street (next to the police department) to Commerce Street, by the railroad tracks. Warren Street will be closed from Renfro Street to south of Ellison; Wilson Street will be closed from the city hall parking lot to south of Ellison; and Main Street will be closed from Renfro Street to south of Ellison.

The main stage will be set up near the corner of Main and Ellison. The carnival will be set up in the Main Street area. The second stage, hosted by First Baptist Church, will be set up at the corner of Warren and Ellison.

City staff, volunteers, and members of the Burleson High School ROTC will be coordinating traffic and parking.

The festival opens at 9 a.m. and closes at 6 p.m.

For more information about street closures or traffic patterns, call Rey Gonzales at 817-447-5410, ext. 271.
