Don't miss Victor Trevino and the Hound Dogs as they headline the third of five free Hot Sounds of Summer concerts in Burleson's Old Town on Friday, June 12. Trevino entertains with an Elvis rockabilly tribute. The 90-minute concert starts at 7:30 p.m. at the corner of Ellison and Wilson streets, next to Burleson City Hall.

The free Hot Sounds of Summer concerts are hosted by the City of Burleson's parks and recreation department. The concert series started May 29 with The Killdares, a Celtic Rock group and was followed by Crawfish on June 5. The rest of the schedule includes the Texas Gypsies (swing) on June 19 and The Derailers (country tribute to Buck Owens) on June 26. The final concert, the Fourth of July celebration at Hidden Creek Sports Complex, will feature Men In Black (Johnny Cash/Roy Orbison tribute).

All Hot Sounds of Summer concerts are free. Bring a picnic as well as a chair or blanket to sit on. For more information call the parks and recreation department at 817-295-8168.
