II. General and Status Updates

A. City host school supply drive

City employees held a “Dunk a Director” school supply drive to benefit Harvest House and Burleson ISD. Employees who donated money or school supplies got a chance to throw a ball at the dunk tank and dunk their favorite director. City Manager Bryan

Langley, Deputy City Manager Tommy Ludwig and even Mayor Fletcher got in on the fun. City employees raised $500 and collected 100’s of school supplies.

B. Library News and Programming
Library Updates and Summer Reading Club News

Last week teens decorated heart maps and learned how to make breakfast foods in Simple Cooking. Families had a great time listening to Tall Tales when Ramblin' Rita came to visit.

Upcoming Library Programming

On Wednesday, July 27 at 10 a.m. the library will close out the Summer Reading Programs with a Mermaid & Pirate Party. There will be lots of fun crafts for families to enjoy and kids are encouraged to dress in their finest pirate and mermaid outfits

Teen Simple Cooking

C. Senior Center Programming
Beach Ball Chair Volleyball
Alternating Tuesdays 1 – 2 p.m.

(Check schedule for dates)

Have a blast with this class! Stretch and get in some surprisingly good exercise as you laugh and enjoy the camaraderie. All talent levels are welcomed. The Burluson Senior Activity Center is open to anyone ages 50 and older.

D. Feel Good Friday

A resident was unable to change the tire on their car after a small accident that caused a blowout. Police was on scene and notified the fire department of the situation and a crew came out to assist and got the tire changed. Teamwork at its best.
