II. General and Status Updates

A. Deputy City Manager Tommy Ludwig named interim city manager

Tommy Ludwig will begin serving as Burleson's Interim City Manager, effective Friday, May 19, 2023. The Burleson City Council voted to approve Ludwig's appointment during their regularly scheduled city council meeting on Monday, May 1.

As Interim City Manager, Ludwig will serve as the chief executive officer, chosen by the Burleson City Council to administrate all city affairs.

“It has been my privilege to serve as the Burleson deputy city manager for the past two years, and I am excited to continue to do so as Interim City Manager,” said Interim City Manager Tommy Ludwig. “I am grateful to the mayor and council for their trust and confidence and look forward to guiding city staff as we continue to provide the highest quality of work for the residents of Burleson.”

Ludwig has been serving as Burleson's deputy city manager since August 2021, leading various city departments, including public works, parks and recreation, human resources, and information technology. Before Burleson, Ludwig served as the assistant city administrator of Waxahachie, Texas, for four years. Before that role, he served the city of Dallas in various positions from 2008 to 2017.

"Tommy has done some terrific work and completed some substantial projects for the city during his time here," stated Mayor Chris Fletcher. "The city council and I know he will continue to lead the staff through this transition without missing a beat, and our citizens will continue to receive superior quality services from the city."

Ludwig received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Texas at Tyler and his Master of Political Science from the University of North Texas. Ludwig is a certified public manager with a Lean Six Sigma green belt certification.

City Manager Bryan Langley announced his departure to take the city manager role in Kyle, Texas, in April 2023. His last day with the city will be Thursday, May 18.

C. Arbor Day 2023 at Centennial Park

This past Friday, the student council of Hajek Elementary planted and mulched ten new trees at Centennial Park.

Parks Arborist and Crew Leader TJ Arthur taught students how to properly and safely plant trees. The tree selection was comprised of five native/adapted species that will provide shade, beauty and help improve air quality for park patrons for decades to come.

D. Library News

Origami Art Installation

During the month of May, the library is asking the community to help make an origami art installation.

Anyone can come to the library and make an origami animal or bring their own and turn it in at the front desk. At the end of the month, library staff will hang up the animals the community has made.

E. Senior Center News

Three teams entered the Senior Center's Spring Chair Beach Ball Volleyball tournament. The battle to win the tournament was fierce, exuberant, and often hilarious.

Ultimately, the Volley Warriors emerged victorious and received full bragging rights as the Spring Tournament winners.

The Senior Activity Center is open to anyone age 50 and up.

F. Cindy Court Construction Meeting

City staff will meet with the Cindy Court residents on May 11 at 5:30 p.m. The meeting will be located at the end of the street in the cul-de-sac. This meeting aims to discuss the current drainage and roadway improvements and answer any questions the residents might have. Staff will be hand delivering meeting notices to the residents.

I. Feel Good Friday

The Burleson Rotary Club, in partnership with The Mended Network, assisted a local elderly resident in doing some home improvements that she was not able to do herself.

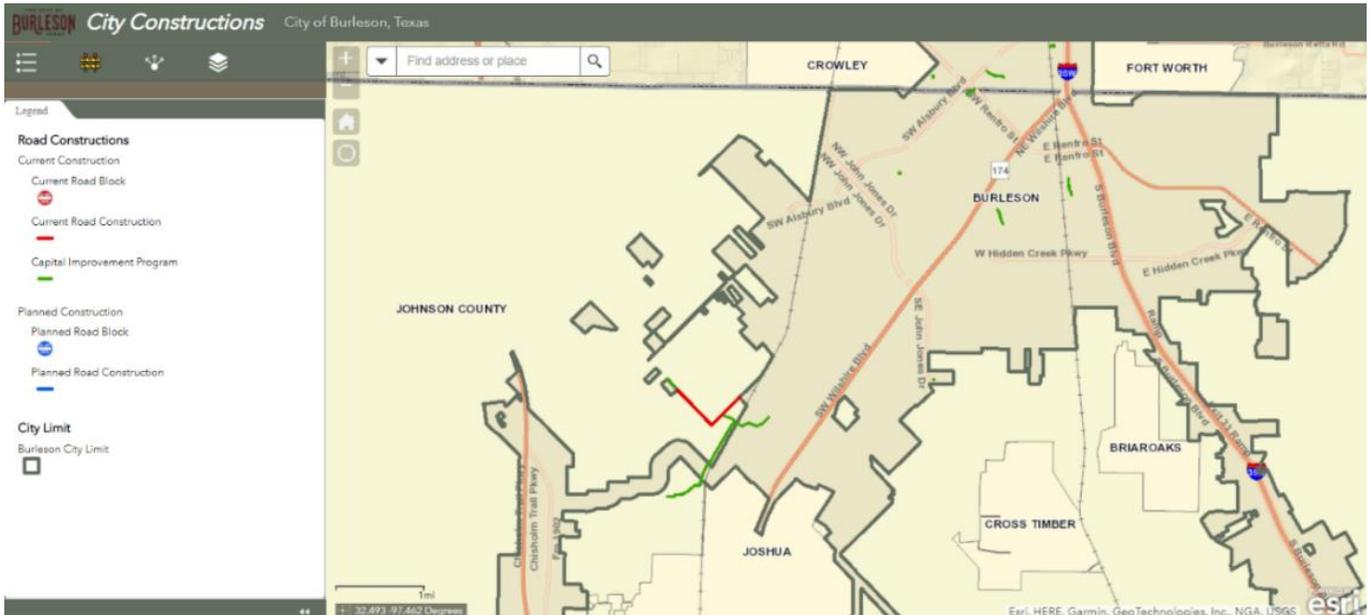

The Mended Network led by its director, Rafael Muñoz, supervised the restoration project and members of the Burleson Rotary participated with their friends and family members acting as volunteers.

Thank you Rotary Club of Burleson for your community service.
