If you have fines that you have not paid to the City of Burleson's municipal court, your time is running out. Arrests will be made and unpaid fines will be collected during a Metroplex warrant roundup scheduled for March 5. Notices have been mailed statewide by participating agencies for the Fifth Annual Great Texas Warrant Roundup.

Burleson currently has 3,046 outstanding warrants valued at $959,494.

The City's marshals, Burleson Municipal Court and the Burleson Police Department will join forces with more than 120 law enforcement agencies across the state for the Great Texas Warrant Roundup of 2011.

The municipal court staff is extending the court's hours of operation. Regular business hours for the court are 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Monday-Tuesday and Thursday-Friday as well as 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. on Wednesday. Hours will be extended on two Thursdays – Feb. 17 and Feb. 24, 8 a.m.-7 p.m. The court is located inside the Burleson sub courthouse, 247 Elk Dr. (across from Burleson High School).

The Burleson Police Department's Citizens On Patrol (COPs) have been assisting the court in clearing the warrants by making phone calls to individuals who have outstanding warrants. COPs members will call those with unpaid fines on Feb. 17 and Feb. 24 in an attempt to clear the cases.

The focus is on Class C misdemeanor warrants, the majority of which are traffic-related offenses. Although the focus is on Class C warrants, higher charge warrants may also be served.

To avoid being arrested, you may:
