The City's Be Burleson safety, wellness and health initiative is hosting a Medical Literacy event on Thursday, April 14, at 6:30 p.m. at the Senior Activity Center.

This event is for residents of all ages. Attendees will learn how to evaluate health websites (a checklist), learn what websites review and evaluate health information for you, and what other websites have to offer in regard to health information. The program is hosted through the efforts of the North Texas Library Partners' Libraries for Literacy program and University of North Texas Health Science Center outreach program.

The senior center is located at 216 S.W. Johnson Ave. For more information, call Rod Bland, director of library services, at 817-426-9201 or Kellye Cunningham, assistant to the city manager, at 817-426-9682.
