It's a sound you can live with, and illustrating that thought just might net you a $50 savings bond.

The City's fire marshal's office and the Mayor's Youth Council are working together on a Fire Prevention Poster Contest to spread the message, "A Sound You Can Live With: Smoke Alarms."

This poster contest is for kindergarten-seniors. There are four age groups: kindergarten-second grade; third -fifth grade; sixth-eighth grade; and freshmen-seniors. The artwork must be on heavy white paper, 8.5" by 11" up to 11" by 17."

The artwork must be complete by Friday, April 15, and turned into Burleson City Hall, 141 W. Renfro St., by 5 p.m. First place winners in each category will receive a $50 savings bond and a t-shirt with their artwork printed on the front. Winners will be announced at the Burleson Character March on Friday, May 27, in Old Town Burleson.

For more information or for an entry form, call Stephanie Killam, 817-426-9687, or email skillam@burlesontx.com.
