Eleven Hundred Springs will kick off the City's free Hot Sounds of Summer concert series in Old Town on Friday, May 27. The band was the headliner for the City's 2010 Independence Day celebration.

Eleven Hundred Springs just recorded a new CD that blends western swing with honky tonk, country and rock. The band's influences include Hank Williams, Hank Thompson and Waylon Jennings.

Two of the band members are regulars on the Country Jam Radio Show on Wednesday nights on 95.3 FM. Eleven Hundred Springs' tour schedule includes 150-plus dates a year throughout the United States and Europe.

The Friday night show on the City stage at the corner of Ellison and Wilson streets (124 W. Ellison St.) is a free 90-minute celebration. All you have to bring is your blanket or chair for the 7:30 p.m. start. The Hot Sounds schedule includes Incognito on June 3 followed by the Josh Weathers Band on June 10, Spazmatics June 17, and Shoot Low Sheriff June 24.
