Shoot Low Sheriff is closing out the free Hot Sounds of Summer concert series June 24 by bringing western swing to Old Town.

The Dallas-based band is inspired by western swing bands, including Bob Wills, Spade Cooley, the Light Crust Doughboys and Milton Brown. The band describes itself as urban and rural as well as sophisticated and rustic with stomping, swinging, edgy music. They play western swing classics as well as hot jazz and original tunes using strings, horns and piano. The song list includes "Take Me Back to Tulsa," "San Antonio Rose," "Beaumont Rag," "Minnie the Moocher," "After You've Gone," and a collection of original tunes.

The Friday night show on the City stage at the corner of Ellison and Wilson streets (124 W. Ellison St.) is a free 90-minute celebration. All you have to bring is your blanket or chair for the 7:30 p.m. start.
