The deadline for the Burleson Calendar Photo Contest sponsored by Keep Burleson Beautiful and the City of Burleson has been extended to Sept. 9.

There is only one change to the rules. There is no limit on the number of photographs a person may enter.

The categories include people, pets, places, nature, recreation, history and culture/lifestyles. Photographers are encouraged to submit pictures that represent the different seasons (especially fall/winter) as well as nature and landscapes.

Pictures from the seven categories must represent the best of living in Burleson. Winning images will be published in a 2012 Keep Burleson Beautiful calendar. The pictures may also be used in City publications and displayed inside City buildings. All contest entries must include a completed and signed entry form and one electronic jpg of the photo on a CD. One 8x10 picture is also preferred.

Photographs must be taken within the Burleson city limits. Entries of identifiable Burleson places are encouraged. If the photographs include people who are recognizable, the submitted picture must be accompanied by a signed release form. Participants then give the City and Keep Burleson Beautiful the non-exclusive right to publish, use, distribute, reproduce or publicly display photographs without payment or compensation.

Entries may be mailed or hand-delivered to Keep Burleson Beautiful, c/o City of Burleson, 141 W. Renfro St., Burleson, Texas 76028, by Sept. 9.

For a complete list of contest rules, contact Environmental Programs Specialist Bianca Chafin at 817-426-9842 or go to the City website, www.burlesontx.com, hover over Departments, then click on Neighborhood Services, Environmental Services, Keep Burleson Beautiful, Programs and Events, and Calendar Photo Contest.
