Imagine the streets of Old Town Burleson packed with children. Now imagine those children, birth-12 years old, dressed up in fun Halloween costumes and in search of free candy.

The year 2011 marks the fourth year that the City has hosted the Burleson Old Town Boo Bash. Boo Bash will fill the streets from 6 p.m.-8 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 29.

Start picking out Halloween costumes now because the children, and you, won't want to miss the fun, which includes free games, candy, entertainment and a costume parade. Local businesses, churches and civic groups join the mix by setting up booths and decorating their vehicles for trunk-or-treat fun. The fun will be set up on Ellison Street, from Main Street to Johnson Avenue.

For more about Boo Bash, call David McDowell at 817-426-9112. Sign up for booths by calling Neal Jones at 817-447-3522 or 817-343-2589.
