The Friends of the Burleson Public Library and the Burleson Heritage Foundation have partnered to create Centennial bookmarks to mark the 100th anniversary of the City's incorporation.

The bookmarks are limited edition, with a new one produced each month. Approximately 300 will be printed monthly, with 150 distributed at the Burleson Public Library and 150 at the Burleson Visitors Center. You can take home a bookmark for a suggested donation of $1. The January bookmark features the City's first mayor, George W. Bransom, who served 1912-1921 and again, 1924-1933. The bookmark also features the Renfro-Clark Home, which was the first home for the Burleson Public Library. Subsequent bookmarks will feature all mayors who have served Burleson.

The Centennial bookmarks are available the library, 248 S.W. Johnson Ave. Hours of operation are 10 a.m.-8 p.m., Monday-Friday; 10 a.m.-6 p.m., Friday; and 10 a.m.-4 p.m. on Saturday. The bookmarks are also available at the Burleson Visitors Center, 124 W. Ellison St. Hours of operation are 10 a.m.-4 p.m., Wednesday-Saturday.

In addition, the Burleson Heritage Foundation is selling Centennial calendars for $10 at the Burleson Visitors Center, city hall, and at several banks throughout town. The collectible calendars feature sketches of historical sites in Burleson.
