A nationally recognized expert on college preparation will be the guest speaker at a workshop on Wednesday, Feb. 29, in the council chambers at Burleson City Hall.

Dr. Kuni Michael Beasley is the speaker. The workshop is at 7 p.m. Light refreshments will be served.

Dr. Beasley was a college professor for 16 years and has been the dean of the NEW College Preparatory Academy since 1996. He has helped and continues to help thousands of students make better grades, increase SAT/ACT scores, and create more scholarship opportunities. Dr. Beasley earned a bachelor of science degree from Texas Christian University, a masters in business administration degree from Oklahoma City University, a doctor of ministry degree from Tyndale Seminary and a Ph.D from the University of Texas at Arlington, completing 22 years of college and paying for just one semester.

The Feb. 29 session should be attended by the student and the parent. Students who are middle school age are encouraged to participate. The session will provide college planning tips and success stories that are aimed at helping students and parents in college planning, important college resources, solutions and strategies.
