Bandera native Charlie Robison is bringing his own brand of country to Burleson's Old Town on Friday, June 8, for the second week of the City's five-week Hot Sounds of Summer Concert Series. Robison has half a dozen CDs to his credit, including the most recent "Beautiful Day." Robison is described as having a "dynamic and hard-charging performing style which makes him a Lone Star favorite and a popular national country-rock attraction."

This year marks the 13th anniversary of the Hot Sounds of Summer Concert Series. The City's parks and recreation department kicked off the free concerts in Old Town in 2000. The Hot Sounds of Summer concert lineup for 2012 includes Josh Weathers (rock and funk, June 1), Fastlane (Eagles tribute band, June 15), Junior Brown (honky tonk, June 22) and The Spazmatics (1980s retro, June 29).

The Friday night concert on the City stage at the corner of Ellison and Wilson streets (124 W. Ellison St.) is a free celebration. All you have to bring is your blanket or chair for the 7:30 p.m. start.

The Hot Sounds of Summer Concert Series' grand finale is July 4th when Grammy Award winner Asleep at the Wheel headlines the City's Independence Day Fireworks Show at Chisenhall Fields Sports Complex, 500 W. Hidden Creek Pkwy. Bring your chairs and your friends and celebrate the nation's birthday. The gates open at 5 p.m. The concert is at 7:30 p.m.
