Don Henley fans, don't miss the June 15 Hot Sounds of Summer concert in Old Town Burleson. The band FastLane, "the Southwest's premier tribute to the Eagles," is headlining the third week of the five-week Hot Sounds of Summer Concert Series. FastLane has been together since 2005 and plays to thousands each year at festivals, clubs and special events. This is country rock played by a band of six who have between 10 and 40 years in the music business.

This year marks the 13th anniversary of the Hot Sounds of Summer Concert Series. The City's parks and recreation department kicked off the free concerts in Old Town in 2000. The Hot Sounds of Summer concert lineup for 2012 includes Josh Weathers (rock and funk, June 1), Charlie Robison (country, June 8), Junior Brown (honky tonk, June 22) and The Spazmatics (1980s retro, June 29).

The Friday night concert on the City stage at the corner of Ellison and Wilson streets (124 W. Ellison St.) is a free celebration. All you have to bring is your blanket or chair for the 7:30 p.m. start.

The Hot Sounds of Summer Concert Series' grand finale is July 4th when Grammy Award winner Asleep at the Wheel headlines the City's Independence Day Fireworks Show at Chisenhall Fields Sports Complex, 500 W. Hidden Creek Pkwy. Bring your chairs and your friends and celebrate the nation's birthday. The gates open at 5 p.m. The concert is at 7:30 p.m.
