The City is seeking applicants for a seat on the Planning and Zoning Commission. The City is trying to fill an unexpired term. The new commission member would serve until Sept. 30, 2013. The deadline to apply is Oct. 5.

The Planning and Zoning Commission's responsibility is to approve plans for subdivisions and make recommendations to the city council regarding land use issues, rezoning requests, amendments to the zoning ordinance and other development regulations, and amendments to and updates of the Comprehensive Master Plan. The commission meets twice a month – the first and third Tuesdays at 6 p.m. at city hall. If there is no work session the meetings begin at 7 p.m.

To be eligible to apply for the P&Z post, an applicant must have lived within the corporate limits of the city of Burleson for one year preceding the effective date of the appointment and shall not, at the time of appointment or during the term, be in arrears in the payment of any taxes or other liability due to the City.

Current P&Z members include Jack Eades, Stuart Wendell, Dan Boutwell, Glenn Wilson, John Young, Brenda Gammon and Alyssa Melton.
