Things will get a little wild and crazy in Old Town on Saturday, Oct. 26, when the City hosts the sixth annual Burleson Old Town Boo Bash. The event, which includes free trick or treating, is for children from birth to 12 years old.

The fun takes place 6 p.m.-8 p.m. on Ellison Street, between Main Street and Johnson Avenue (124 W. Ellison St.). All you have to do is dress your child up in his/her favorite costume and bring a trick or treat bag. Local businesses, churches and civic groups set up booths and decorate their vehicles for trunk-or-treat fun. Children enjoy free candy, games, bounce houses, a pumpkin patch full of free pumpkins to decorate, and a costume parade.

The event is coordinated by the City's parks and recreation department. Entertainment on the City stage includes the Recreation Center and Performers Unlimited group at 6 p.m. and Frances Lea Dance Academy at 6:45 p.m. Mayor Ken Shetter will read a story to the children at 7:15 p.m., followed by a costume parade across the stage at 7:30 p.m.

Sign up for a booth by calling Neal Jones, 817-447-3522 or 817-343-2589. For more about the event, call the BRiCk at 817-426-9104.
