The Mayor's Youth Council and Burleson Municipal Court are teaming up for Celebrate Kindness. The goal is to encourage children from kindergarten up to seniors to refrain from name calling and bullying.

The contest - posters, drawing, paintings, and video - is open to all youth who live in Johnson County, including all Burleson youth who live in Tarrant County. Children, kindergarten-second grade and third grade-fifth grade, can submit a drawing (no larger than a poster board) that illustrates the contest theme. Those drawings can be dropped off at Burleson City Hall or the Ron Harmon Subcourthouse. The deadline is Tuesday, Jan. 21.

Students in sixth-eighth grade and freshmen-seniors can draw, paint or create a video. The videos should be no longer than two minutes. All footage, music and materials must be original. Videos for the public service announcement can be submitted to the Burleson MYC Page on Facebook or put it on a flash drive or disc and turn it in at Burleson City Hall.

Entries in all categories will be judged on creativity, neatness and originality. Prizes for first, second and third places will be awarded in each category.
