The Friends of the Library will host the group's annual book sale on Friday, April 25, 10 a.m.-6 p.m., and Saturday, April 26, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., at the Burleson Public Library.

The sale will have a large variety of books, hardcover and softcover for all ages, including popular fiction and nonfiction (biographies, cooking, self-help, history, literature and more). You can buy a bag of books, of your choosing, for $10. Single books range in price from 50 cents to $2.

If you are a member of the Friends of the Library, you are invited to a special presale on Thursday, April 24, 6 p.m.-8 p.m. If you want to be part of this presale you can become a member of the Friends of the Library for $5. Memberships will be available at the door during the Thursday night pre-sale.

The Friends of the Library is a nonprofit comprised of individuals, businesses and organizations. Members conduct ongoing fundraising projects, serve as ambassadors for the library, sponsor and underwrite programs for the library that are not included in the budget, sponsor special events, and volunteer time and resources for regular daily tasks and projects.
