

May 10, 2014

Sally Ellertson
Public Information Officer
141 West Renfro
Burleson, Texas 76028-4261
817-426-9622
F: 817-426-9390
sellertson@burlesontx.com
www.burlesontx.com

The incumbents won re-election to their seats on the Burleson City Council. Due to the Nov. 5, 2013, change to the charter, today's winners will be serving three year terms instead of two year terms.

Place 2

Rick Green: 626

Place 4

Matt Aiken: 627

Place 6

Ronnie Johnson: 514 (66.67 percent)

Robert Gray: 183 (23.74 percent)

Mayor

Ken Shetter: 613 (79.51 percent)

John Glen Garrison: 151 (19.58 percent)

Rick D. Green, 49, is a realtor. He is a lifelong resident of Texas and has lived in Burleson for the past 25 continuous years.

Matt Aiken, 33, is an attorney. He is a lifelong resident of Texas and has lived in Burleson for the past eight continuous years.

Ronnie Johnson, 68, is retired. He is a lifelong resident of Texas and has lived in Burleson for the past 41 continuous years.

Robert Gray, 37, is a police officer. He is a lifelong resident of Texas and has lived in Burleson for the past 30 continuous years.

Ken Shetter, 42, is an attorney/executive director. He is a lifelong resident of Texas and has lived in Burleson for the past 15 continuous years.

John Glen Garrison, 51, is employed in lawn care. He has lived in Texas for 45 years and has lived in Burleson for the past 38 continuous years.

A total of 771 registered voters cast ballots in the City election. That's 3.53 percent of the 21,854 registered voters in Johnson and Tarrant counties.