Be adventurous and dive in for Easter eggs, race against your peers for prize eggs at Hidden Creek Sports Complex, or enjoy a leisurely stroll through fields dotted with eggs at the City's Russell Farm. Whatever you choose, make sure your calendar is cleared for Saturday, March 28.

The fun begins at 10 a.m. with goggles and swimsuits for the Aqua Egg Hunt at the BRiCk's indoor pool. Children up to age 11 will be divided into four age groups for hunts in the play structure area and the lap pool. First up are those two years old or younger (must have a parent/guardian) at 10 a.m., followed by children three to five years old at 10:30 a.m. The hunt moves to the lap pool at 11 a.m. with children six to eight years old. The finale features those between nine and 11 years old, at 11:30 a.m. The fee is $2 for each child. Participation is limited, so preregistration is recommended.

This year, Bunny Daze is moving to Field #1 at Hidden Creek Sports Complex. Once the youngsters have dried off and changed clothes, take them across town to the ballfields for the free festivities at noon. There will be onstage performances, carnival games, and face painting. The Easter Bunny will be at Bunny Daze to meet and greet and pose for pictures. The Easter egg hunt starts at 1:30 p.m. Children, up to age 12, will be divided into age groups to hunt for eggs, including prize eggs. If you want to be a vendor, the booth spaces are $20 for a 10x10 space. A cover over your booth is recommended.

Joey the Donkey and all his farm friends had such a good time in 2014 that he is hosting a free Easter egg hunt at Russell Farm again this year. Children up to 4 years old can join him at 3 p.m. on March 28. The farm is located at 405 W. CR 714. Joey will pose for pictures, so bring your own camera and Easter baskets. The 30-acre Russell Farm was donated to the City in 2011. The grounds have several galleries containing wood sculptures by Charlie Boren and local artists, along with historical artifacts.

Sign up for Aqua Egg Hunt at the BRiCk, 550 N.W. Summercrest Blvd. You can find Hidden Creek Sports Complex at 295 E. Hidden Creek Pkwy., next to Hidden Creek Golf Course. Call 817-426-9104 for more information on both events. And, for more information about Joey's Easter egg hunt at Russell Farm, call 817-447-3316.
