Thank you for your service.

More than 40 City of Burleson employees were honored at the City's annual awards luncheon today, Dec. 10, for their years of service to the City.

Taking the cake is Tom Clark, chief engineering inspector, for his 25 years of service. He was hired by the City of Burleson on Oct. 16, 1990, as a crew leader in the water department. Clark was promoted to engineering inspector on May 1, 1998, then transferred to gas well development inspector on Nov. 1, 2010. On Sept. 22, 2014, Clark was promoted to his current position.

Two employees marked 20 years with the City in 2015. They are Terri Joslin, senior meter service technician, and Gayla Robison, property room coordinator for the Burleson Police Department.

It was November 6, 1995, when Gayla Robison was hired by the Burleson Police Department as a records clerk. She was promoted to property and evidence technician on April 7, 1999, and to property room coordinator on May 26, 2005.

Terri Joslin joined the City of Burleson on Feb. 16, 1995, as a parks maintenance worker in the parks department. She moved to facilities maintenance, then was promoted to meter service worker for utility customer services on June 1, 1998. On Sept. 16, 1999, Joslin was promoted to meter service technician. Since Oct. 1, 2011, her title has been senior meter service technician.
