Beatles fans don't want to miss this!

Me & My Monkey, Dallas Fort Worth's only Beatles Tribute band, is playing at the BRiCk on Saturday, March 12, 1:30 p.m.-4 p.m. The event also includes Beatles scholar Aaron Krerowicz.

Admission to the concert, in the gymnasium at the BRiCk, is free! The stars of Me & My Monkey are Rod Bollinger as John Lennon, Peter Paul Sacco as Paul McCartney, George Jara as George Harrison, and Michael Daniel as Ringo Starr. Stop by and sing along with "Hey Jude," "I Want to Hold Your Hand," "Can't Buy Me Love," "Yellow Submarine," "Got To Get You Into My Life," and "Paperback Writer."

Do you want a sneak preview of the concert? There is a 10-minute video on YouTube, <https://youtu.be/u-RPQUuzSQk>. You can also "like" Me & My Monkey on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/beatletribute> and peruse their website, <http://www.meandmymonkey.com/>.

Aaron Krerowicz is the United States' only full-time professional Beatles scholar. He won a research grant through the University of Hartford in November 2011 to study the band and since has presented his findings through well more than 100 presentations at libraries, universities, continuing education programs and community centers throughout the United States and England.

On March 12, Krerowicz will be at the BRiCk presenting "From the Shadow of JFK: The Rise of Beatlemania in America," which is also the title of his latest book published in June 2015. The book contends that John F. Kennedy's life and assassination inadvertently primed the nation for the Beatles' arrival and success, and this multimedia presentation will explain how and why.

Krerowicz' books will be available for purchase (and autographs) at the March 12 event. This month, he launched a series of analytical videos titled THE BEATLES MINUTE. To learn more about Krerowicz and to see THE BEATLES MINUTE, go to his website, <http://www.aaronkrerowicz.com/>.
