The Friends of the Library will host the group's annual book sale on Friday, April 22, 10 a.m.-6 p.m., and Saturday, April 23, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., at the Burleson Public Library.

The sale will have a large variety of books, hardcover and softcover for all ages, including popular fiction and nonfiction (biographies, cooking, self-help, history, literature and more). You can buy a bag of books, of your choosing, for $10. Single books range in price from 50 cents to $2.

If you are a member of the Friends of the Library, you are invited to a special presale on Thursday, April 21, 6 p.m.-8 p.m. If you want to be part of this presale you can become a member of the Friends of the Library for $5. Memberships will be available at the door during the Thursday night pre-sale.

The Friends of the Burleson Public Library conduct ongoing fund-raising projects; encourage citizens to use the library and its services; serve as ambassadors of goodwill for the library; sponsor and underwrite programs for the library that are not included in the budget; sponsor special events, such as contests, programs, and receptions; and, volunteer time and resources for regular daily tasks and special projects.

The library is located at 248 S.W. Johnson Ave.
