Burleson Fire and Police respond to bomb threat

Burleson police investigated a bomb threat at Walmart Supercenter, 951 SW Wilshire Blvd., on Saturday evening (Sept. 3).

The store was evacuated shortly after a Walmart employee received the threatening phone call at 8:19 p.m.

There were no injuries during the evacuation.

Burleson Police and Fire swept the store and did not find any issues. The store was cleared at 9:56 p.m.

Making a terroristic threat is a class B misdemeanor.
