City Holiday events planned

Santa will be busy in Burleson this month hosting multiple events for the entire family.

The City's 17th annual Santa's Breakfast takes place 7 – 11a .m. Saturday, Dec. 3 at the BRiCk (Burleson Recreation Center). The event is geared to children from birth to 12 years old (children 2 and younger get in free).

Admission is $4 for children and $5 for adults if you buy the tickets in advance. On the day of the event, Santa's Breakfast tickets are $5 for children and $7 for adults. Tickets are on sale at the BRiCk, 550 N.W. Summercrest Blvd.

After you fill up on pancakes and sausage at the BRiCk head over to the Burleson Public Library's Thinking Outside the Christmas Box event from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. Participants will enjoy creating ornaments, decorating cookies, a scavenger hunt, door prizes, refreshments and more.

The City's annual tree lighting and fireworks will also take place that night.

The Burleson Rotary Club's Parade of Lights will start at Kerr Middle School at 6 p.m. and will bring Santa Claus to his final stop in Burleson on Dec. 3, the corner of Johnson Avenue and Ellison Street. The Rotary Club will be collecting blankets along the parade route and Mayor's Youth Council will be collecting canned goods.

Dancers and singers will be on hand entertaining the parade crowd. Santa and his helpers will then have the honor of turning on the City Christmas tree lights. The fireworks show will follow and is choreographed to holiday music. The show is a 10-15 minute low-aerial fireworks display at the corner of Johnson Avenue and Ellison Street.

Join the Senior Activity Center the next weekend for their Christmas Craft Fair, 9 a.m. – 2 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 10. You can find lots of one-of-a-kind handmade items that will make a great unique gift.

Santa's last stop for the City's holiday events will be at Christmas at Russell Farm from noon – 8 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 17. Festivities include pictures with a donkey wearing antlers, cowboy poetry, hay rides and more.
