Free Tax Assistance at Burleson Public Library

The Burleson Public Library is partnering with AARP Tax Aide again this year to offer free tax assistance.

Every year qualified agents from the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) volunteer to complete the tax returns of low and moderate income taxpayers, especially those 60 and older.

Appointments start Feb. 7 and are available Tuesdays, 10:30 a.m. – 2 p.m., at the Library and Thursdays, 9 a.m. – 1 p.m., at the Burleson Service Center, 725 SE John Jones Drive. The last day for an appointment is April 13.

You must book your appointment in advance at the Burleson Public Library, 248 SW Johnson Ave and volunteers will only be available to offer assistance during the posted times. This program is a first-come, first-serve basis only and time slots fill up very quickly so don't wait, make your appointment today.

When you come for your appointment, please bring the following.

- 1099-MISC showing any miscellaneous income
- 1099-R form if you received a pension or annuity
- All 1099 forms (1099-INT, 1099-DIV, 1099-B, etc.) showing interest and/or dividends and documentation showing original purchase price of sold assets
- All forms indicating federal income tax paid
- Copy of last year's income tax return(s)
- Dependent care provider information (name, employer ID or Social Security number)
- Government issued photo identification
- Proof of health insurance for yourself and all dependents
- Receipts, canceled checks or 1099 forms related to continuing education
- Social security cards or other official documentation for yourself and all dependents
- SSA-1099 form if you were paid Social Security benefits
- Unemployment compensation statements
- W-2 forms from each employer
