City Council will host special meeting, Feb. 13
A Special City Council meeting to discuss multi-family housing is scheduled for 7 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 13.

A Special City Council meeting to discuss multi-family housing is scheduled for 7 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 13 at Burleson City Hall, 141 W. Renfro.

The City Council will not take any action, but several questions have been raised concerning multi-family development so city staff will present a variety of information to include details of specific multi-family development. There will be an opportunity for citizens to comment during the meeting. Any citizen with questions or concerns about multi-family development is encouraged to attend.
