For Immediate Release:

April 23, 2017 noon

Tristan Torres, 18-year-old from Burleson is awaiting arraignment at the Johnson County Corrections Center in connection with the fatal shooting of 17-year-old Cameron Lewis, also of Burleson. The victim's twin brother was also shot during the confrontation but it is not believed his injury is life-threatening.

At 11:13 p.m. Saturday, April 22, dispatch received a call regarding a shooting in the 200 block of SW Thomas St.

Preliminary information revealed the individuals were meeting to fight and randomly selected the campus of Burleson ISD's Mound Elementary school as that meeting location. The victim was sitting in the driver's side of his vehicle when he was shot and his twin brother was standing next to the vehicle. Another car that was stopped along the 300 block of NW Tarrant Street began firing shots at the parked car. Torres turned himself into authorities at the Burleson Police Department without incident.
