Burleson Arts & Manga Festival scheduled for Sept. 16

Enjoy a day of fun, filled with the same great events that you'd find at a full-scale comic convention, including autograph sessions, live game demonstrations, panel discussions with industry professionals, prize drawings and cosplay contests for kids and adults. The Burleson Arts & Manga Festival is held from 10 a.m. – 5 p.m. Saturday, September 16 at the Burleson Senior Activity Center, 216 SW Johnson Ave. The event is free and open to everyone.

Participants can learn from professional artists like Shunuff! Studio and Songbird Beauty, meet cosplayer British Pixie and voice actors Dawn M. Bennett, Jessica Calvello, Kristen McGuire and Christopher Wehkamp. All fandoms are welcome to come dressed as a Whovian or a Trekker, a Jedi or a Sith, a superhero or a supervillain. And if you think your costume is the best you can enter into the costume contest, one contest will be held for 12 and under and another contest for those 12 and up, prizes will be awarded. Don't worry about planning for lunch because a variety of local food trucks will be on-hand.
