The public is invited to speak to Burleson City Council on any city-related topic they wish during the upcoming Connect with Council Town Hall Meeting. The meeting will start at 7 p.m. Tuesday, June 12 in the Parish Hall of Saint Ann Catholic Church, 100 SW Alsbury Blvd.

Connect with Council is an initiative of Burleson City Council to personally connect with citizens and businesses by giving them an opportunity to speak with their local elected officials. This Town Hall Meeting will provide an opportunity for citizens to ask questions and comment on any city-related issue important to them directly to city council members.

The format of the meeting will include a greeting from Mayor Shetter and then the meeting will be open for questions. There will be no staff presentation, no time limit on any given question and residents or business owners will not need to sign up to speak.
