Breakfast of Champions to honor Mecke

The Burleson Opportunity Fund's Annual Breakfast of Champions will be held on October 11 and will honor local businessman, Bill Mecke for his role in education within our community.

The Burleson Opportunity Fund's Annual Breakfast of Champions will be held on October 11.

This year, Bill Mecke will be the honoree.

Bill has been part of the Burleson community for over 30 years as an active participant in the Burleson Area Chamber of Commerce, Burleson Works, Meals on Wheels, Habitat for Humanity, the Children's Advocacy Center and other local organizations.

Bill is president and owner of KWS Manufacturing Company, one of the largest conveyor manufacturers in the U.S. KWS is also the largest industrial employer in Johnson County with over 150 employees and growing.

Bill attended Texas A&M University and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering. He is also a professional engineer in the State of Texas.

The Burleson Opportunity Fund is changing the expectations of students, teachers, parents, and community members to include the idea that all Burleson High School graduates will have the opportunity to attain higher education and to cultivate the economic development benefits of expanding the attainment of post-secondary degrees and career certifications. To date, the Burleson Opportunity Fund has awarded 1138 students with scholarships to attend
