City releases 2020 Annual Report

The City of Burleson has released its 2020 Annual Report. The report includes top accomplishments of the organization from the past year and goals for the upcoming year. A key focus this past year has been on improving the organizational efficiencies and identifying cost containment strategies.

“I am also proud of the critical projects that we were able to complete, even during a pandemic,” stated City Manager Bryan Langley. “The report highlights a variety of them and outline many of our goals for the upcoming year.”

“The city of Burleson has a lot to be proud of when we look back at 2020,” stated Mayor Chris Fletcher. “Yes, it was an incredibly difficult year but as always our community pulled together and took on the challenges that faced us.”

“We will continue to look for ways we can partner with our businesses and non-profits in our community” stated Mayor Fletcher. “I look forward to continuing working with all of you to make our city great.”
